- 8:45 – 9:00 am Welcome and Introductions
FEA Update
- 9:00 – 9:50 am Seller Carry Back Notes and Installment Sale Issues
Sometimes a seller carry back is the only way to make a transaction happen. We'll look at ways to provide the financing while preserving the ability to exchange.
- 9:50 – 10:00 am Networking Break
- 10:00 – 10:50 am FIRPTA and Non-Resident State Withholding Requirements
More foreign money has been invested into the U.S. in recent years and as a result, the number of foreign sellers is increasing. We'll review the FIRPTA requirements as well as the various non-resident requirements and the liabilities to QIs. The new California claw back reporting will also be discussed.
- 10:50 – 11:00 am Networking Break
- 11:00 – 11:50 am Legislative Update
A member of the FEA Government Affairs Committee will review Dave Camp's tax reform plan and the Obama Budget and their potential impact on section 1031. The FEA plan of action will also be reviewed.
- 11:50 am – 1 pm Lunch
A Word from our Sponsors
- 1:00 – 1:50 pm It's all in the Numbers
While a QI does not provide tax advice, it is essential to understand the calculation of gain and the recapture of depreciation as well as their tax consequences in order to properly present on 1031 exchanges or respond to general questions from clients. Our session will provide an overview on carryover basis and its impact on depreciation.
